

room 4's daily note May 4, 2021

group meeting

just a few reminders

During Large Group Discussion we talked about "Which senses do you use when you are having dinner?" Below are the children's thoughts during our conversation:

Kody - "My nose to smell the strawberry."

Kira - "I use my hands to peel the banana and then I eat it."

Blaize - "Eating Mac 'n Cheese taste good."

Kayci - "I feel the oranges when I peel it and then taste it when I eat it."

Hinda'a - "I smell Mac 'n Cheese, then I eat it."

Micah - "I pick up the pizza with my hands and then I taste it, it taste good, I eat a lot of pizza."

Peter - "I smell and taste all the good foods my mom makes for me."

Trevor - "I smell the food and sometimes if it smells good I taste it, if I like the way it taste then I eat it all, but if I don't really like the way it taste then I only eat a little."

Henry - "I taste, I smell, I feel and I see the food."

Shina - "Ice cream eating yum."

Dylan - "I eat hotdog it tastes salty. I drink tea it taste sweet and really, really good."

Boston - "I eat burgers and Mac 'n Cheese, it taste good."

books we read

what we did at school today

Today the children completed their letter Qq alphabet book. This activity helps the children to; learn to recognize letters, learn letter sounds, develop pre-reading skills, learn to form letters and build fine motor skills.

During Kindergarten Camp the children worked on Fun with Letter Qq and connecting pictures of people using their senses to which of the senses is being used.
